

The Counselor Connection

MAY 2021

This month's character trait: LEADERSHIP

So What is It?

Leadership is the ability to inspire others to work together by showing confidence, strong communication skills, and decision-making ability

Why is it Important?

Leadership is an important quality to have because it helps us to develop positive relationships with others, identify and capitalize on our strengths, and set us up for success

How can you Show Leadership?

- Teach a younger brother or sister how to play a game rather than telling them they can't play because they don't know how to

as adults.
